1984 was an incredible year for CHR music! The quality and variety of music available to the format somehow managed to top 1983. It's quite apparent that CHR has found its niche as the true mass appeal music source for the 12-44 demographics. CHR made dramatic strides in becoming a colorblind format. There were major increases in the number of Black/Urban crossovers, which mixed quite well with the AOR crossovers and pure CHR hits.

Of particular note this year was a lessening of the influences of overseas bands, and a return to prominence of American artists topping the charts. 1984 also found widespread use of CHR music in movie soundtracks, spawning such hits as "Against All Odds (Take A Look At Me Now)," "Ghostbusters," "Footloose," "Let's Hear It For The Boy," "I Just Called To Say I Love You," and three titles from the "Purple Rain" soundtrack, among many others.

Van Halen, once pigeonholed as a heavy metal band, proved its widespread popularity by taking home top honors this year. There were some new and/or emerging names added to the growing list of CHR artists who've quickly became household names: Cyndi Lauper, Prince, John Waite, Wham!, Steve Perry, Phil Collins, Billy Ocean, Corey Hart, Madonna, Sheila E., Dan Hartman, Dennis DeYoung, Jermaine Jackson, Julian Lennon, Night Ranger, John Cafferty & The Beaver Brown Band, the Honeydrippers, Peabo Bryson, Nena, Ollie & Jerry, Ratt, Twisted Sister, Christine McVie, Shannon, Romantics, New Edition, Peter Wolfe, and Tracey Ullman.

And 1984 was a great year for some well-established names including Elton John, Chicago, Cars, John Cougar Mellencamp, Michael Jackson, Duran Duran, Lionel Richie, Pat Benatar, Culture Club, Daryl Hall & John Oates, David Bowie, Billy Joel, Huey Lewis & The News, Kenny Loggins, Alan Parsons Project, Pointer Sisters, Police, Sheena Easton, Bruce Springsteen, Rod Stewart, Stevie Wonder, Yes, ZZ Top, Tina Turner, Rick Springfield, Paul McCartney, Kool & The Gang, and many others. Never has the variety of hits been so great.

As CHR programmers continue to search for new, exciting sounds to keep their stations fresh, we can expect wide exposure for new music in 1985. By keeping their eyes on the trend-setters, PDs have brought tremendous musical success to CHR. CHR stations that use these proven, winning programming techniques will remain an influential, if not vital, part in the shaping of tomorrow's hits for America in 1985.

Statistics are my life. Here's what happened on the AOR charts frontier in '84:

Soundtracks: The marriage of celluloid and vinyl met with resounding approval at AOR. Nine film-related albums were among the year's top 84 albums; last year's list had nary a soundtrack. Some soundtracks featured tracks by high-profile artists that weren't permitted or chosen to be singles. The Fixx's "Deeper And Deeper," Bryan Adams's"Heaven," and Journey's "Ask The Lonely" might have become hits had they been released as singles. Instead they became, in effect, AOR exclusives.

Staying Power: "Sports" by Huey Lewis And The News is the first album ever to stay on the chart for the entire year (51 weeks), a feat all the more newsworthy when the nine weeks it spent on last year's charts are considered.

The trend toward fewer albums reaching the number one spot continued. There were nine that hit the top this year, versus ten last year, 12 in 1982, and 14 in 1981. On the other hand, the turnover was faster for number one tracks. This year saw 16 chart-topping tunes, compared with 14 last year.

Another sign of consolidation was that 15 artists had more than one track in the year's Top 84, compared to 13 last year.

In the two years R&R has compiled AOR tracks charts, Yes's "90125" became the first album to have four tracks that reached Top 15.

Crossovers: It's no secret that fewer records do well in AOR these days without crossing over to CHR. Only three (Rush, Motley Crue, and David Gilmour) of the 40 most played albums were without a hit single. Last year, 11 in that group didn't have a CHR success story.

The same is true for the 40 highest tracks on the AOR year-end chart. Only three (Fixx's "Deeper And Deeper," Honeymoon Suite's "New Girl Now," and Jefferson Starship's "Layin' It On The Line") didn't make it onto the CHR charts and, as mentioned earlier, the Fixx tune was never a single. Last year, 11 of the 40 leaders didn't cross over to CHR.

Adult/ Contemporary TOP 84 OF '84

1 LIONEL RICHIE/Hello (Motown)
2 LIONEL RICHIE/Stuck On You (Motown)
3 STEVIE WONDER/I Just Called To Say I Love You (Motown)
4 PEABO BRYSON/If Ever You're In My Arms Again (Elektra)
5 CYNDI LAUPER/Time After Time (Portrait/CBS)
6 PHIL COLLINS/Against All Odds (Take A Look At Me Now) (Atlantic)
7 CARS/Drive (Elektra)
8 ELTON JOHN/Sad Songs (Say So Much) (Geffen)
9 BILLY JOEL/Leave A Tender Moment Alone (Columbia)
10 BILLY JOEL/The Longest Time (Columbia)

Fifteen months ago, on September 16, 1983, Lionel Richie entered the A/C chart with his eventual number one smash, "All Night Long." In the 64 weeks since then, the Motown superstar has not left the chart — not for even a single week — a record! All but one of Lionel's entries earned the top spot. This year alone, he was encamped at number one for 15 weeks! 1984 also marks the first time in R&R A/C history that an artist has registered five songs among the top achievers. Clearly, the album "Can't Slow Down" never did slow down during 1984.

Not to be overlooked was a spectacular performance turned in by Billy Joel, whose "Innocent Man" LP sired four hit songs, all of which raced to number one (one of them, "Uptown Girl," hit the top spot near the end of last year). Three other artists scored with triple top-ten hits: Elton John, Culture Club, and Kenny Rogers.

Top new artist kudos to Cyndi Lauper, closely followed by Julio Iglesias. Congratulations to other debut performers: Coyote Sisters, Michael Gore, Corey Hart, Julian Lennon, Shakin' Stevens, Tracey Ullman, and Jack Wagner.

A warm A/C welcome to these first-time A/C artists whose origins are rooted in other formats. They include Billy Ocean, the Cars, Eurythmics, Dan Hartman, the Honeydrippers, Madonna, Huey Lewis & The News, Mike Reno and Anne Wilson, Thompson Twins, Tina Turner, and Wham!

Streaks: This marks the tenth consecutive year Barry Manilow hit the Top 15; the eighth straight for Kenny Rogers. George Benson's own eight-year streak was broken this year, as was Eddie Rabbitt's five-year skein.

Longevity: Peabo Bryson's "If Ever . . . " occupied 18 weeks of the '84 charts, the most of any song. Lionel's "Hello" was second with 17 weeks. More longevity: Madonna's "Borderline" was on at least one of our reporting stations for 40 consecutive weeks. Three songs were second, each with 34 weeks' worth of reporting.

Odd happenings: "Borderline" reached number 15 on the A/C chart without ever becoming an R&R "Breaker." That's the designation which indicates concurrent airplay at 60% of our reporting stations. That performance is indicative of substantial major market, heavy rotation airplay, and was the highest a song has ever gone on the A/C chart without achieving Breaker status.

Soundtracks: "Footloose" produced two top A/C hits this year ("Let's Hear It For The Boy" and "Almost Paradise"). while television's "General Hospital" yielded two ("Think Of Laura" and "All I Need").

R&R's Top 84 of '84 is truly unique. Presented here is a year-end list which, for the first time in history, has been compiled solely on rotational airplay information provided by reporting stations. Whereas past charts have utilized the accumulated data from radio stations' numbered charts, the R&R Top 84 was determined by reports of heavy, medium, and light airplay.

There are a number of significant changes in the make-up of this year's chart, many of which can be attributed to the use of rotational reporting. Perhaps the most apparent difference — and strength — of a rotational compilation is in more accurately measuring the relative strength of records. This shows up in two primary areas: the length of time a record spends at the top, and the total number of #1 records. In 1983, only one record — "Islands In The Stream" — spent three weeks at #1, while nine songs were on top for two weeks. By contrast, 1984 showed Alabama's "Roll On" at #1 for five weeks, and "When We Make Love" for four weeks. Three more songs held the crown for three weeks each, while eight others claimed two weeks apiece. In all, 30 reached the number one spot on the chart this year, compared to 36 in 1983.

Leading the #1 way this year were nine artists with two apiece: Alabama, Janie Fricke, Crystal Gayle, Anne Murray, T.G Sheppard, Conway Twitty, Willie Nelson, Don Williams, and the Oak Ridge Boys.

1984 also proved to be a good year for new artists. In 1983, only one — Deborah Allen — managed to break into the Top 83. This year, however, seven artists cracked the year-end chart for the first time: John Schneider, Jim Glaser, Exile, Eddy Raven, Atlanta, the Judds, and the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band.

With regard to songs that reached Top 15, 148 different titles achieved that status this year, represented by 65 different artists. By separating the artists who had three or more Top 15 records from those with one or two in that category, we find that 45% of the artists account for 65% of the top songs. This proves that while Country relies heavily on its established star system, it's not impossible to pierce the upper levels. Indeed, the 55% of the artists who provide the other 35% of the hits are essential for the growth of both the radio and record industries.

Another interesting statistic is the superior relative worth of the "Breaker" as a barometer for the success of a record. Out of the 165 different songs that reached Breaker status through the end of October 112 (68%) went on to peak inside the top 15. Conversely, only one record that fought its way into the top 15 had not been a Breaker!

Finally, flying in the face of last year's proliferation prognostication, the level of duets actually leveled off, with seven tandems reaching Top 15.

Black/Urban Radio TOP 84 OF '84

1 PRINCE/When Doves Cry (WB)
2 CHAKA KHAN/I Feel For You (WB)
3 CAMEO/She's Strange (Atlanta Artists/PG)
4 ROCKWELL/Somebody's Watching Me (Motown)
5 PATTI LABELLE/If Only You Knew (Phil. Int./CBS)
6 LIONEL RICHIE/Hello (Motown)
7 NEW EDITION/Cool It Now (MCA)
8 DENIECE WILLIAMS/Let's Hear It For The Boy (Columbia)
9 TINA TURNER/What's Love Got To Do With It? (Capitol)
10 BILLY OCEAN/Caribbean Queen (No More...) (Jive/Arista)

The competition between labels for delivering hits was extremely intense in 1984. Only Warner Brothers and Motown notched two records in the top ten of the Top 84. Warner Bros. distinguished itself by scoring the number one and two hits of the year with Prince and Chaka Khan. Not to be outdone, Motown placed four songs into the Top 15 of '84, more than any other company.

Lionel Richie led the pack with the most hits in the Top 84 (four), followed by Prince, Tina Turner, and the Dazz Band, with three each. Nine artists placed two records in the Top 84. They are Jeffrey Osborne, Luther Vandross, Jermaine Jackson, the Jacksons, Shannon, Pointer Sisters, Kool & The Gang, Rockwell, and Patti Labelle.

Seven duets are among the Top 84 this year, including those by Jeffrey Osborne & Joyce Kennedy, Dennis Edwards & Siedah Garret, Bobby Womack & Patti Labelle, Yarbrough & Peoples, Ashford & Simpson, and Stacy Lattisaw & Johnny Gill, in addition to a male effort by James Ingram & Michael McDonald.

The only non-black artists to make it onto the Top 84 were Sheila E. (who's Latino) and Michael McDonald. Once again, a few mixed groups made it this year, including Champaign, and Time. White artists such as Hall & Oates, Culture Club, and Spandau Ballet managed to get onto the Black/Urban chart, but couldn't make it past the number 11 spot because of the reluctance of Black PD/MDs to go all-out and commit heavy rotation to those songs.

There were some impressive comebacks this year: Leon Haywood, J. Blackfoot (who once sang with the Soul Children on Stax Records out of Memphis), Bobby Womack & Patti Labelle, and certainly Ms. Tina Turner qualifies.

Male vocalists put four songs into the Top 10 of the Top 84. They were Prince, Rockwell, Lionel Richie, and Billy Ocean. But the ladies did just as well; Chaka Khan, Patti Labelle, Deniece Williams, and Tina Turner all had songs in the Top 10. Only two vocal groups, Cameo and New Edition, had hits strong enough to make the Top 10.

New talent such as Robbie Jackson, Jocelyn Brown, Shannon, Billy Ocean, Sheila E., Alicia Myers, Cherrelle, J. Blackfoot, Rockwell, D. Train, and Laid Back should feel proud about their careers this year, because they all reached the Top 84, an accomplishment many artists never achieve.

"Hip Hop" did its thing during 1984. "Rappin'," "Scratchin'," and "Jammin' " were in, but what about next year? Overall, the music for '84 was right there. Black/Urban radio stations were able to "load for bear," and Donnie Simpson and his staff at WKYS/Washington were among those black broadcasters who brought home the ultimate trophy in American society — being number 1! Black America's only natural resource is still black music.

JAZZ RADIO TOP 84 OF '84

1 DAVID SANBORN/Backstreet (WB)
2 STEPS AHEAD/Modern Times (Musician/Elektra)
3 DAVE GRUSIN/Night-Lines (GRP)
4 TANIA MARIA/Love Explosion (Concord Picante)
5 SADAO WATANABE/Fill Up The Night (Musician/Elektra)
6 EARL KLUGH/Wishful Thinking (Capitol)
7 PIECES OF A DREAM/Imagine This (Elektra)
8 MILES DAVIS/Decoy (Columbia)
9 PLAYBOY JAZZ FESTIVAL/Playboy Jazz... (Musician/Elektra)
10 DAVE VALENTIN/Flute Juice (GRP)

Last year, when presenting R&R's first year-end Jazz chart, I had projected that "we can look forward to more excitement and growth in 1984." Last April 13, R&R expanded its Jazz section to a full page and nearly doubled the field of reporting stations, including noncommercial stations for the first time. The results have been, needless to say, exciting and tremendously well-received. R&R is now able to reflect a more accurate and comprehensive account of national Jazz airplay.

Of the 202 albums that made the Jazz chart this year, only 14 made it to number one! The album holding that coveted position the longest (ten weeks) also topped the Top 84, "Backstreet" by David Sanborn. "Modern Times" from Steps Ahead clinched the number two spot overall, remaining at the top for nine weeks. Also reaching number one for significant lengths of time were Tania Maria and Wynton Marsalis, with six weeks each.

Including subsidiaries, Columbia placed the most albums on the Top 84 with 12, just ahead of Musician/Elektra's 11. Other labels that developed several albums among the Top 84 were Palo Alto (seven), and GRP, Concord, and Milestone/Fantasy with five apiece.

In the "Albums That Reached Top 15" bracket, Columbia also wears the crown, with 15 releases. However, Musician/Elektra, which had 11 Top 15 LPs to its credit, ranked first in the category of "Most Top 5 Albums," with nine. Concord also had 11 Top 15 records, Palo Alto had ten, and there were seven for Pablo.

On last year's Top 83, Tania Maria scored the most Jazz airplay by a woman, ranking 37th. This year she bettered that effort, rising to 4th on the list! Additional female performances of merit were Carla Bley (26), Carmen McRae (47) Nancy Wilson (with Ramsey Lewis) (56), Diane Schuur at (58), and Emily Remler (83).

Staying power: Two albums tied for remaining on the chart the longest — David Sanborn's and Andy Narell's, with 20 weeks each. Impressively, Sanborn had been reported to R&R for 42 weeks of 1984!

This has been another successful, growing year for Jazz, and it took a lot of hard work, patience and commitment on the part of everyone involved — radio stations, record companies, promoters, and not least, the super people at R&R. Thank you all, and I wish you continued success in the New Year and in years to come. Ready? Let's do it again!
